

SEMINAR OBJECTIVES

- To provide new means to understand the existing and emerging threats in cyberspace
- To comprehensively explore and understand global cybercrime threats and impact to society
- To understand cyberspace crime, Modern Age Threat and vulnerabilities

ABOUT THE ORGANIZER

The Malaysia Crime Prevention Foundation (MCPF), Penang is the main organizer of the seminar in partnership with the Royal Malaysia Police (RMP), Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM) and American Society of Industrial Security (ASIS) Malaysia.

Established in 1993, MCPF's primary aim is to promote public participation in crime prevention awareness and an enhancement of the criminal justice in Malaysia.

RMP and USM has been steadfast and stalwart partners with MCPF on various crime prevention activities involving schools, academia, industries and communities at large.

In this 5th International Seminar Series (the first commenced in 2004) MCPF in partnership with RMP, ASIS Malaysia and USM is collaborating further to bring to the forefront contemporary security and crime prevention issue and challenges focusing on cyberspace, cybercrime and cybersecurity.

SPEAKERS & TOPICS

Speakers from home and abroad are being invited to share their experiences and expertise on existing and emerging threats of global cyberspace crimes impacting society and how these critical challenges can be strategically overcome. Papers will be presented by the Academia, Security Practitioners and Authoritative bodies.

Speakers will be from Royal Malaysia Police (RMP), Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM), American Society of Industrial Security (ASIS), Honeywell International, IFW Global (Australia) and other renowned organizations in the domain of cybercrime and cybersecurity.

Among issues that will be addressed would be national and transnational concerns, cyber terrorism, scams, cyber-security operations, the latest realms of social engineering, cyber law and legal aspects to be cognizant of and the realities of discerning what is 'fake' versus what is 'truth' in today's instantaneous news arena.

Please check with the official Website of Malaysia Crime Prevention Foundation (MCPF) Penang www.mcpg.org for the latest on the panel of Speakers and the specific titles of their presentation papers.
